

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

Two systems of recycling washing machine effluent to irrigate fields in areas when natural precipitation and the municipal water supply are wanting. The pH is acidified from basic to 7 to 8 in a holding tank before the effluent flows through a series of ion exchange filters, treated with ultraviolet illumination, and to the irrigating water sprinklers and an inside or outside toilet.